Belvest

Spring/Summer 2025

Belvest celebrates renewal and natural beauty with a Spring/Summer 2025 collection that captures the essence of the season. The new collection is characterised by the use of harmonious pastel colours, evoking summer landscapes, and meticulous details inspired by spring flowers, symbols of rebirth and freshness.

The colour palette selected for this collection ranges from soft morning shades to vivid sunset hues, creating an atmosphere of subtle and sophisticated elegance. The fabrics have been carefully chosen to reflect the quality, tailoring, and lightness that are the hallmarks of the Belvest brand: from light, breathable linens to soft, comfortable cottons to the purest sheen of summer cashmere/silk blends. Each material has been selected to ensure an impeccable fit and unparalleled comfort.

The variety of designs combined with these specially featured fabrics offers solutions for every occasion, from business appointments to elegant evenings. The cotton/kapok jacket, with its feather-light fibre, provides unparalleled comfort, like a warm embrace. The pastel-coloured garments, on the other hand, offer lightness and breathability typical of cotton and linen, enhanced by the sheen of silk. This interplay of visual effects and sensations is completed with a selection of knits and shirts that embellish every outfit with a touch of sophistication and lightness.

The knits are made from the finest yarns, available in a variety of timeless weaves and styles, while the shirts, in pure cotton or linen, feature sophisticated patterns and summery textures that add a touch of freshness to a man's wardrobe. The colours have been chosen to be vivid and harmonious, perfect for creating elegant and sophisticated outfits that express the personality and taste of the wearer on any occasion.

Belvest is committed to maintaining the highest standards of craftsmanship, with meticulous attention to detail that makes each garment unique. This collection is not only a tribute to the beauty of the warm seasons, but also a testament to Belvest's commitment to offering only the best to its clients.
